Offer acceptance

The Buyer confirms receipt of this offer and, if acceptable, shall sign and return it to the Seller. The parties will then proceed to prepare and execute the SPA as described in the transaction procedure.

2. Transaction Procedure

The following sequence reflects the procedure supplied for Aurum Precious Metals Limited. Specific timelines and responsibilities should be confirmed in the executed SPA.

01

Proof of Product (POP)

The Seller sends the Proof of Product (POP) to the Buyer.

02

Full Corporate Offer (FCO)

The Seller issues the FCO. The Buyer reviews, signs, and returns the FCO to the Seller.

03

Sales and Purchase Agreement (SPA)

The Seller sends the SPA to the Buyer. The Buyer reviews it and identifies any requested amendments. The parties agree amendments, if any; the Buyer signs and returns the SPA, and the parties retain the executed version.

04

Customs and shipping fees

The Buyer pays applicable customs and shipping fees directly to the designated shipping company. The fees, payee, invoice, and payment instructions should be confirmed in writing before payment.

05

Shipping and export documents

Within 72 hours, the Seller provides the Buyer with the Certificate of Origin, Insurance Certificate, Export Permit, Packing List, signed Commercial Invoices, and the full set of Air Waybill documents marked “Freight Paid.”

06

Arrival and final assay

The goods arrive at the Buyer’s designated refinery. The refinery conducts the final assay, and the result is confirmed in accordance with the SPA.

07

Final settlement

Following arrival and confirmation of the final assay, the Buyer remits full payment to the Seller’s designated bank account, in accordance with the executed SPA and commercial invoice.

3. Documents, Payment and Delivery

Documents to be provided by the Seller

- Certificate of Origin
- Insurance Certificate
- Export Permit
- Packing List
- Signed Commercial Invoices
- Full set of Air Waybill documents marked “Freight Paid”

Timing: The supplied procedure states that the Seller provides the listed documents within 72 hours. The event that starts this 72-hour period should be expressly confirmed in the SPA (for example, confirmation of the Buyer’s payment of applicable customs and shipping fees).

Fees and final payment

The Buyer pays customs and shipping fees directly to the designated shipping company, against confirmed written payment instructions. Following arrival at the Buyer’s refinery and confirmation of the final assay, the Buyer pays the full amount due to the Seller’s designated bank account as stated in the executed SPA and commercial invoice. The parties should specify the payment deadline, currency, bank details, and any assay-dispute process in the SPA.

Scope and responsibility

Each party confirms that it has the authority to enter into the transaction and will provide the information and documentation required of it under the executed SPA. The Seller’s delivery, export, and documentation obligations, and the Buyer’s inspection, fee, and payment obligations, are to be governed by the final signed agreement.

Confidentiality and non-circumvention

Any confidentiality or non-circumvention obligations, including their parties, scope, duration, and governing terms, should be expressly set out in the executed SPA or a separately signed agreement. No duration or additional legal term is assumed in this template.

Document control

This template is not a completed offer until all transaction fields are filled, checked, and approved by the parties. Any change to the final offer or SPA should be documented in writing and accepted by the parties.
